OLD ENGLAND.

By ARGUS CENTOCULI, Inſpector-General of Great-Britain.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 2, 1748. [N°. 192.]

DVOCATE as I am for Truth and Reaſon, far be it from me to think of paſſing over in Silence, that the Reſtraint on the Preſs was not taken off at the Revolution; but, on the contrary, was continued by the 4th and 5th of William and Mary for one Year, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſions of Parliament. If the Circumſtances of Affairs at the Revolution and at this preſent Time would make the Caſes parallel, yet the Point is not to be reſted upon Authority, let it be ever ſo great, where Reaſon lies open to us as well as it did to them whoſe Authority is pleaded: This would be, at any Time, unbecoming Men of Underſtanding, but in the preſent Caſe it is begging the Queſtion; for the Queſtion is, whether the Freedom of Reaſoning ought to be controuled by Authority? However it cannot by any Means be admitted, that ſuch Authority exiſts on the Side of thoſe who would avail themſelves of it; for the Act, as it was but a temporary one, is far from furniſhing any Proof that the People at that Time, or even thoſe individual Perſons who paſſed that Bill, thought that the Subject was not entitled to this Right, which is the Security of every other.

This I think will appear, if we reflect that the freeſt and braveſt People in the World have, nay, and were uſed, in Time of great Danger and Neceſſity, to ſuſpend every Right and Privilege on which the Syſtem of their Conſtitution was founded, to give up the Law itſelf, and erect in the Perſon of a Dictator an arbitrary Power and Authority without Account or Controul; but they, at the ſame Time, nevertheleſs ſtill held their Rights and Privileges dear and unalienable, and departed from them only to have them reſtored again more confirmed and aſſured. At the Revolution, the Occaſion, on the one hand, was great and preſſing, the greateſt and moſt preſſing that it was poſſible for any Concurrence of Misfortunes to produce: A new Government; a Perſon a little before, ſtiled Sacred Majeſty, gone into Exile; many great and powerful Families engag'd by the perſonal Ties, not ſimply of Acquaintance and Familiarity with which they thought themſelves honoured, but of Favours and Obligations lately receiv'd; Notions of Hereditary Indefeaſible Right, Paſſive Obedience, and Non-Reſiſtance, which had been propagated with great Study and Induſtry in the former Reigns, and, tho' abſurd, yet prevalent and deep-rooted in many Minds, from whence ſprung a blind and furious Zeal, which afterwards broke out and diſcovered itſelf in Plots and Conſpiracies of the blackeſt Dye and moſt deteſtable Nature; add to this, the Oath of Allegiance and Fidelity, heretofore taken to the Prince in Exile, which remained in Force and continued ſtill to bind in the Opinions of many of the Clergy, who gave a kind of Authority to thoſe Opinions by their Sufferings, and relinquiſhing their Benefices and Dignities for, what they call'd, Conſcience Sake: All this gave great Room to diſturb a Government not entirely ſettled. On the other hand, the Paſſion of the other Part of the People ran ſo high, the Tide on their Side was ſo ſtrong in Favour of Liberty, the Nobility and Gentry in their private Capacities had manifeſted ſo great and noble a Spirit by their bold Meaſures in excluding a Tyrant, and the Parliament by a Confirmation and Sanction of thoſe Meaſures, that it was impoſſible to ſuppoſe, that that Spirit ſhould ſo ſoon dwindle away, or that Danger was at that Time, on that great Renovation of the Rights of the Subject, to be apprehended to Liberty from that Quarter, or from the Miniſtry of a Prince juſt raiſed to the Throne for the great Purpoſe of Liberty. So that the Reſtraint of the Preſs was evidently at that Time in Favour of Liberty, for the Cauſe of the new Government and Liberty was one and the ſame: They were embarked on the ſame Bottom, and could not but ſtand or fall together; and yet it was judged improper to let that Reſtraint continue long.

But the Reverſe of all thoſe Inconveniencies which attended the Revolution exiſts at this Time, and the Government is poſſeſſed of all thoſe Advantages of which the Enemies of the preſent Eſtabliſhment were at that Time poſſeſſed. The Notions of Hereditary Indefeaſible Right, of Kings being accountable to God alone, is almoſt entirely eradicated and univerſally exploded: Few of thoſe remain who were indebted for perſonal Favours and Obligations to the Houſe of Stuart; they are for the moſt Part gone, and a new Race has ſucceeded. The immenſe Revenue of the Crown, and Monies appointed for the Management of the Funds for more than half a Century flowing into and ſwelling the Fortunes of the Servants of the Crown, has furniſhed the Means of creating many Friends, and at the ſame Time rendering thoſe Friends powerful. Many Families have been ennobled. The Funds which are grown up with the preſent Syſtem, which ſtand upon no other Foundation, and have already engroſſed, and continue ſtill daily to engroſs a very great Part (I am ſorry to ſay it) a ſhamefully great Part of the Wealth of theſe Kingdoms; have engaged Multitudes, whoſe Properties are veſted in them, and in a particular Manner connected the Security of many private Perſons Fortunes with that of the State. Theſe, and many others too long to enumerate, are the particular Advantages, beſides that more general and comprehenſive one, of the Love and Affection of the Subject conciliated by a long Experience of good Government, with which Time has ſtrengthened and confirmed the preſent Eſtabliſhment. Theſe Things create a wide Difference between the Situation of Affairs at preſent and at the Revolution.

I beg Leave to mention one other Difference, another Advantage enjoyed by the Government at preſent, which, if it had been fallen on by thoſe at the Helm of Affairs on the Revolution, would have probably anſwered their Purpoſes, and ſatisfied them without any farther Reſtraint upon the Preſs. Nor will it be any Objection to this Suppoſition, that it is an obvious and eaſy Thing, ſince Inſtances in Abundance will readily preſent themſelves to every Man's Reflection, of the moſt obvious as well as moſt uſeful Things, which have lain long latent and unnoticed. It is now by the 4th of the Queen declared, "That whoever "ſhall, after the 25th of March, 1706, maliciouſly, adviſedly, and directly, by Writing or Printing, declare, "maintain, and affirm, that our Sovereign is not lawful "and rightful Queen of theſe Realms; or, that the pretended Prince of Wales, who now ſtiles himſelf King "of England by the Name of James the Third, has any "Right or Title to the Crown of theſe Realms; or, that "any other Perſon, or Perſons, has, or have any Right "or Title to the ſame, otherwiſe than according to an "Act of Parliament made in the firſt Year of their late "Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, entitled, An "Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, "and ſettling the Succeſſion of the Crown; and one other "Act made in the twelfth Year of his ſaid late Majeſty "King William, entitled, An Act for the further Limi"tation of the Crown, and better ſecuring the Rights "and Liberties of the Subject; or, that the Kings or "Queens of England, with and by the Authority of the "Parliament of England, are not able to make Laws and "Statutes of ſufficient Force and Validity, to limit and "bind the Crown of this Realm, and the Deſcent, Limi"tation, Inheritance, and Government thereof; every "ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be guilty of High Treaſon, "and, being thereof convicted and attainted according to "the Law and Statutes of this Realm, ſhall be deemed and "adjudged Traitors, and ſhall ſuffer Pains of Death, and "all Loſſes and Forfeitures as in Caſes of High Treaſon."

It is farther provided by the aforeſaid Act, "That if "any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, from and after the ſaid 25th "of March, maliciouſly and directly, by preaching, teaching, or adviſed ſpeaking, declare, maintain, and affirm, "that our Sovereign is not lawful or rightful Queen, &c. "as above; every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, being thereof "lawfully convicted, ſhall incur the Danger and Penalty "of Præmunire, mentioned in the Statute of Præmunire, "made in the 16th of Richard the Second."

This laſt Quotation will not I deem be looked on as entirely foreign from my Subject, ſince it ſhews how much the Government is armed at all Points with reſpect to it's Right and Title; and the great Number of Advantages they already enjoy (the greateſt Part of them very proper, I admit, for them to enjoy) make it the leſs reaſonable for them to demand more.

Theſe Proviſions abundantly ſecure the fundamental Part of our Conſtitution from any licentious Attack, and what Reſtraint it carries with it, is upon the Advocates of Slavery only; and this was the whole, I am perſwaded, of what was intended on the Revolution, at that critical Juncture of Time, when the Bounds of Prerogative and Privilege were not ſufficiently aſcertained, when the proper Diſtinction between Hereditary Right and Hereditary Indefeaſible Right, between Allegiance and Paſſive Obedience, was not thoroughly underſtood by all Ranks or Degrees of Men: For to juſtify Malverſation, to ſanctify Oppreſſion, to hinder the People from complaining, who, upon the Principles of the Revolution, have a Right to more than complaining, have a Right to redreſs, nay, and to redreſs themſelves, was contrary to the Spirit and Senſe of the Revolution.

And this Opinion is confirmed, by the Diſcontinuance of the Reſtraint which ſoon followed, and the Sentiments of the Parliament to be deduced from that Diſcontinuance. There is too one farther Inference which I with great Pleaſure make; for if a Parliament in thoſe Days, under thoſe great Diſadvantages of public Affairs above deſcribed, thought fit to let the Reſtraint on the Preſs fall to the Ground, how impoſſible is it to ſuppoſe, that a Reſtraint will be laid in theſe Days, under a Prince whoſe Hands are ſo greatly ſtrengthened, whoſe Throne is ſo much more eſtabliſhed and ſecured, and who will never give Cauſe to have it ſaid, that he was out-done by any of his Predeceſſors in Love and Affection for his Subjects, or tender Care of their Rights and Privileges.

THERE is no jeſting with Edge-Tools, ſays the Proverb; but there is no jeſting with the Tartane Spinſters of North-Britain, ſay I: For they have taken me at my Word * in the moſt courteous Manner, and very agreeably ſurprized me, early on Chriſtmas Day, with a very fine Night Gown of their own Manufacture, diverſified by as many different Streaks and Partitions, and as gay as my Hundred Eyes in the Peacock's Tail. I was a little ſcrupulous at the firſt in accepting of it, as I did not know how far my virulent Friend Aretine might bring it as a Charge of Bribery and Corruption upon me; but I ſet him and his ill-natured Wit at Defiance, for ſurely the Favours of the Fair are ruſſlieſs and Proof againſt the moſt ſcrupulous Conſcience; for who can be ſuch a Churl to refuſe what they ſpontaneouſly offer? more eſpecially the Produce of their Induſtry in the Work of their own Hands? I muſt aſſure my Spinſters, that I am not a little pleaſed with their Preſent; in which I am reſolved to diſtinguiſh myſelf of a Morning alternately at every Coffeehouſe in my Neighbourhood, without Fear of incurring the Imputation of Jacobitism, which ſome of the Agents of the Pelhamgæ would fain ſtigmatize it with, having conceived great Diſpleaſure againſt it, as it produced of late two ſignal Victories in Scotland, and one in the Plains of Litchfield, where the Turncoat Chief was diſmounted and ſeverely handled, for the laſh Attack he made upon the Tartane Regiment.

The ſpinſters, and their Manufacture, have an indiſputable Right to the Protection of my Pen; which I ſhall not fail to exert, as Perſius did his Sword in the Cauſe of the diſtreſſed Andromeda, as often as I find them attacked by the Monſter Drummondary, in the induſtrious Exerciſe of the Wheel and Web: But, alack-a-day! all Hero as I appear to be, it is with Reluctance I am conſtrained, by the Love of Truth, to undeceive my gentle Correſpondents in the advantageous Idea they have conceived of my Dimenſions; for, by the Magnitude of the Gown, I find they have taken me to be a great Man indeed. I doubt they have been led into this Miſtake from the Appearance of a Brace of ſturdy young Fellows, who have been foraging among them of late: Whereas poor Argus has neither the Bulk of the one, or the Length of the other; but is a little dimunitive old Man, all beſpangled with Eyes like a Playhouſe Aurora: But ſuch as he is, they may be aſſured of the beſt he can; and Time was, to ſpeak the Language of an old Man, when that was no deſpicable Service among the Sex: But however impaired ſome of my Faculties may be, yet my diligent Spinſters will find, that that for which they have have choſen me their Champion, will not flag in their Cauſe; I will join my Implement to theirs, and make no doubt of Succeſs from the happy Conjunction of the Pen and the Diſtaff, in putting an effectual End to the Drummondary's Progreſs, and driving away his Widow's Rival-Commodity out of North-Britain, to the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Tartane Manufacture in it's native Currency, and the Emolument of my induſtrious Correſpondents. For the VENEREAL DISEASE.

THE ſhorteſt, ſafe, and regular Cure, this Day in the World, from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt inveterate Degree of it, by a Medicine as pleaſant to take, and as eaſy in its Operation as it is effectual in its Cure; ſo that the unfortunate Patient gets ſuddenly and ſurprizingly well, without Diſtaſte to his Palate, the leaſt Diſorder of Body, or any Confinement whatever. This is that great Remedy, now ſo well known and long experienced to be truly infallible, and is the Grand ANTI-SYPHILITICON that Radcliffe and Garth uſed to ſay would totally extirpate the Venereal Diſeaſe from the Face of the Earth, were it but univerſally known, and properly taken. Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their cruel attendant Symptoms, it preſently cure; and if taken in Time, even prevents their taking Place. It is a ſafe, gentle, and pleaſant Family Purge, even for Children as well as grown Perſons, in all Caſes where Purging is neceſſary; nor can the deepeſt Scurvy, Rheumatiſm, Gout, Evil, or Leproſy, ſtand before it, but are pleaſantly cured and thoroughly extirpated by it, as well as the higheſt and moſt inveterate State of the confirmed Venereal Diſeaſe; which, with all its moſt raging Symptoms, it ſoon eradicates, reſtoring Health, Strength, and Vigor to the Body. Thoſe who once take it, will never have Occaſion to any Thing elſe.

One Pot in moſt Caſes is ſufficient for a Cure, and can only be had at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, at 6s. a Pot, ſealed up with a Book of Inſtructions, in which all Perſons may fully underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

No Letters anſwered unleſs Poſt-paid.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKNESSES,

SO deſtructive to the Conſtitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Moiſture or very Eſſence of Life, and inducing Conſumptions, Nervous Diſorders, &c. but to Poſterity alſo, inaſmuch as thoſe afflicted with ſuch Gleetings, if not wholy diſabled, as very many are, from propagating their Species, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, miſerable, and ſhort-liv'd Iſſue.

Theſe waſting Gleetings, occaſion'd by Self-pollution, exceſſive Venery, ſevere Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almoſt all Phyſicians and Surgeons to be ſo very difficult to overcome, are now ſo certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Reſtrictive Balſamick Electuary, that no one, how bad ſoever, need deſpair of being entirely ſet to Rights by it in a few Days.

It is from this its moſt extraordinary Efficacy, that ſo many Practitioners in Town and Country now ſend for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only ſure and infallible Remedy that can be ſafely rely'd upon in thoſe Caſes. This Grand Medicine is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, London, at 6s. a Pot, ſeal'd up, with a Book of Inſtructions, highly neceſſary to be read by all Perſons whoever were afflicted with any Diſorder of the Seminal Veſſels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balſamick Electuary.

No Letters anſwer'd unleſs Poſt-paid.

This Day is publiſh'd, the Sixteenth Edition, of

ONANIA: Or, The Heinous Sin of Self-Pollution and all its frightful Conſequences (in both Sexes) conſidered, with Spiritual and Phyſical Advice to thoſe who have already injured themſelves by this abominable Practice.

As alſo the SIXTH EDITION of the SUPPLEMENT to it, both of them Reviſed and Enlarged, and now printed together in One Volume.

And as the ſeveral Paſſages in the former Impreſſions, that have been charged with being obſcure and ambiguous, are in theſe clear'd up and explained, there will be no more Alterations or Additions made to them.

Theſe Editions contain ſome further and ſurprizing Inſtances of the Miſchiefs by that filthy, ſinful Commerce with one's ſelf, which is ſo notoriouſly practiſed, as well by the Adult as Youth, Women as Men, Married as Single, to the weakning their Generative Faculties, and hindering Procreation, as their Letters of Complaint to the Author herein inſerted, ſhew.

And, amongſt others, a curious Letter from a Lady, with his Anſwer to it, concerning the Uſe and Abuſe of the Marriage-Bed; together with divers Cabaliſtical and other Letters from both Sexes, of ſome ſecret unnatural Effeminacies, neceſſary to be known both by the married and ſingle of each Sex.

To which is added,

A Curious PIECE tranſlated out of the Latin, from L. S. SCHMEDIER, as it is inſerted in the Acta Lipſienſia; concerning the Return of the Seed into the Maſs of Blood; well worth the Peruſal of Phyſicians, Surgeons, Anatomiſts, and all others of Art and Curioſity.

As alſo Dr. QUINCY's Tranſlation of Dr. CARR's remarkable Anſwer to a Letter ſent by a Divine, concerning two Nuns in Rome, reported to have changed their Sex.

Likewiſe Dr. DRAKE's and ſeveral other Phyſicians Opinions of Hermaphrodites, and Women brought to a Reſemblance of them, by the Practice of Self-Pollution, as was the caſe of a young Lady of 18, whoſe well-wrote Letter to the Author, deſcribing and lamenting her Condition, is (in order to deter others) inſerted.

A very grave and learned Divine and Phyſician having peruſed this Diſcourſe, before it went to the Preſs, returned it with his Opinion of it in theſe Words:

'This little Book ought to be read by all Sorts of People, 'of both Sexes, of what Age, Degree, Profeſſion, or Condition 'ſoever, guilty or not guilty of the Sin declaimed againſt in it.'

Is now ſold (Mr Iſaac, Bookſeller, at the Golden Ball, in Fleetſtreet being dead) by CHARLES CORBETT, Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleetſtreet, and by HENRY COOK under the Royal Exchange. Price Bound 3s. 6d.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained ſuch Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the abovelaid Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicines were preſcrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an obſtinate Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Bolufles, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Preſcription (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Interfrittes, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety; as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, exceſſive Coſtion, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3s 6d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and inſigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in theſe Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is of ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be intirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapſe, even in the tendereſt Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicine; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach that the niceſt Perſon is delighted with it.

Mr. Will. Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son in Law, Mr Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon asking for Mr. Goldſmith's Heirs, and paying 3s 6d.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY,

& Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years Standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is generally advised, altho always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

y the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS,

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it; and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heavyness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inasmuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances they allmerdily and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have to universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewomen's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 3s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutes sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumptions which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they must assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble, as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten time, as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will be compleat Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with proceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely extirpated or not. Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary. No Letters answer'd, unless Post paid.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet, or Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings-out, and all other the most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; as it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulnesses of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Anti-Siphylicon is but six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient, in most Cases, to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, flashing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves, so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 2s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions at large.

It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, causing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and also occasions a sweet Breath.

It is neither disagreeable to the Smell or Taste, but effectually preserves the Teeth and Gums from all manner of Foulness, Corruption and Putrefaction, keeps them sound, good, and in most beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to answer the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Respect, as Persons innumerable have experienced.

But these inimitable Qualities, and solely inherent Virtues by which it has justly gained such an universal and unparallell'd great Character, have occasion'd, as usual in such Cases, various and frequent Endeavours to mimick it, some under the same Name, and in the very Words of this Advertisement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, London, at 3s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.

And also of IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of ever so long Standing,

The Famous and Inestimable PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest, and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and infallible Cure for Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men in the Universe, and which it ever accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have Experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Curricle of the Blood and Juices raising all the Fluids from their languid depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, increasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, tones and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright lively Disposition, banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression.
